

Spring 1 Year 6—Our Precious planet

English outcomes

Text—Running Wild

Non—Chronological report

Story

French

Verbs
Playing games
House and home

Children's Input

Children investigate a biome of their choosing or an explorer - become the expert

Jigsaw

Dreams and goals
Healthy Me

Science

Evolution and inheritance

History

Analyse and evaluate the past—Mountain climbers—Everest

Chronology - Dates key geographical locations were reached

Historical enquiry

Should people explore unknown lands? How do they travel? How long were journeys? What dangers did they face?

Historical sources - Explorers - evidence, primary and secondary

Visitors and Visits

Noddle Hill - pond biome, Energy Works
Visitor from coastal erosion work

Launch Event

Make a biome in a jar
Artwork relating to different biomes

Enterprise

Sale of shadow puppets

Art and Design

Shoe box biome

3D triograph

Painting - contrast desert/arctic climate

Rainforest animals up close

Artists focused on different biomes

Geography

Skills - Map skills, locating places

Human and Physical - Coastal erosion exploration defenses and effects

Locational Knowledge - Climates in biomes - Arctic, Desert, Temperate, Rainforest, Water (2 weeks on each)

Place knowledge - animals, people, cultures, who lives there, timezones

Fieldwork - temperature, rainfall measurement, comparison with biomes.

Community Links

Links to business protecting local area from pollution.

Landing Event

Children present their findings from individual investigation to parents and

End of Half term activity

Children explore a biome/ explorer of their choice and become the expert

Design and Technology

Textiles - animal puppets

Structures to prevent coastal erosion

ICT

Stocks and shares

Videos to go on the website regarding an area of need on the planet

Music

New Year Carol

Performance to parents

Debate

Climate change. How can we help?

Deforestation - Poaching, impact on wildlife

Should all places be discovered? Damage.

PE

Dance

Hockey

RE

Living in faith

Easter