

2019

Stoneferry Primary School

November Newsletter—Week 4

Upcoming dates

4th December

Class 6 Assembly and SATS information meeting

F1,F2, Y1 Hobgoblin theatre performance

5th December

Starbooks coffee from 2:20p.m.

White Ribbon fire engine and police car visit p.m.

6th December

Christmas Jumpers

Christmas Fair 1:30 p.m.

10th December

EYFS performances—letter to follow next week.

Christmas has well and truly arrived in school and Mr Clark has been very busy over the last couple of days in preparing the hall for the Christmas festivities. I hope that you all received a copy of the Christmas dates this week and separate letters will be coming soon for some of the individual events.

Please can I pass on my thanks for all of the kind donations so far towards next week's Christmas Fair. Miss Tock would be really grateful for any more donations of bottles and is really excited to be adding a "Kevin the Carrot" to the raffle! Thank you today for all of the biscuit donations too and one of my weekend jobs now is to wrap them all up in preparation for the big day.

Mr Raw, Head of School

Fabulous F2

This week I have spent time in our new Foundation 2 class and loved every minute. It was brilliant to witness the enthusiasm of the children and staff as they enjoyed their beautiful new environment. I can't wait to observe their journey throughout the year. #spseyfs

Packed Lunches

Please could I just remind parents, that if your child stays a packed lunch we would politely ask chocolate bars are not part of the children's lunch, which is in line with us being a healthy school. Chocolate biscuits are fine, but lately I have noticed a number of children eating chocolate bars which is not in line with school policy. Thank you.

Trust Choir to Sing in Birmingham

It was confirmed this week that the children who are part of the Trust choir will travel to Birmingham on Thursday of next week to take part as the closing act for the Schools, Students and Teachers Network National Conference. This is an annual event which is attended by many important figures from the teaching profession and it is a great privilege to be invited. I will let you know more about how they got on in next week's newsletter.

#spsmusic #spsvision

Final Starbooks of Term

On Thursday 5th December, we will be holding our final Starbooks of the term. Coffee and tea will be available in the hall from 2:20 p.m, with reading in classes starting at 2:40 p.m. This is the final chance to collect an entry into our end of term draw, which we will draw in school in the last week of term and announce the winners shortly afterwards. Mrs Sykes hopes to see as many parents as possible and thanks you for your support this term with this new activity. #spsvision #spsccommunity

Year 2 Writing Workshop

On Thursday, a group of our Year 2 children joined other children from across the Trust to take part in a writing workshop day. Mrs Sykes accompanied the children to Victoria Dock school where the children really impressed with their excellent skills in writing. Examples of this work are now on display in the Year 2 classroom and I am amazed by the quality of the work that was produced. Please take a look on Twitter to see this. #spsvision #spsmeeallneeds #spswriting

Mr Good Back on Monday

We are all looking forward to Mr Good returning to school on Monday following his recent paternity leave. The children and staff have all missed having him around and can't wait to hear about the new arrival.