

Science and History Tasks

In Science, we are learning about light. As part of your research, produce a poster about different sources of light. Include both natural and man made sources of light. How many sources can you find?

In History, we are exploring life in the Stone Age. Can you research and find out about Stone Age homes?