

LO: To use adverbs to open sentences (fronted adverbials)

Task 1: Tick the adverbs

Before		While
Amazingly		Desperately
Although		Sadly
Amongst		Through
Beautifully		Majestically

Task 2: Make a list of 10 (or more) persuasive adverbs to start sentences.

Task 3: Add an adverb to the start of these sentences (fronted adverbials).

_____, has a cone-shaped roof made from straw.

_____, the roundhouse has space to sleep 6 people, so it is perfect for a large family.

_____, inside you will find a big, circular fire pit, with a huge cauldron set above for cooking.

Task 4: Write your own sentences to describe your roundhouse using adverb sentence openers (fronted adverbials).

LO: To identify nouns.

Task 1: Make a list of 10 (or more) persuasive adverbs to start sentences.

Task 2: Write sentences using adverbs starters (fronted adverbials,) to describe the features of the Roundhouse.

- Walls
- Beds
- Living area
- Garden

Task 3: Write a paragraph to describe your roundhouse (approximately 4 or 5 sentences). Remember to use persuasive vocabulary, adverb openers (fronted adverbials), along with conjunctions and correct punctuation.