

SPAG: Accurate use of commas

Write out these sentences and punctuate correctly.

Suddenly the door slammed shut.

Because Mrs Sykes likes chocolate Year 2 decided to treat her to maltesers.

Miss Northen who loved running never stopped talking about it.

Callum who is quite forgetful often leaves his glasses at home.

Quietly Chloe crept into the classroom and ate all the sweets in the prize box.

Ruby who has an amazing personality never fails to make Year 5 smile.

Extension: make your own up.

SPAG: Accurate use of commas

Suddenly, the door slammed shut.

Because Mrs Brady likes chocolate, Year 6 decided to treat her to maltesers.

Miss Northen, who loved running, never stopped talking about it.

Ryan went to the shops and bought milk, sugar, teabags and ice-cream.

Following the four examples using commas, write your own sentences.

SPAG: SENSE

Re-write this paragraph so it makes sense

Suddenly Ava walk into the room. She was with her friend who is called Maisy. Because Maisy hated scary classrooms she soon turned on her heels and left. Their is no use in running ava thought to herself. She was write. Bang.

Extension: continue the story.