Christmas Eve

To my friends,

I am sorry for all the mess that I have made today. I know that you are all sad because my fire burnt things.

I am sorry for melting the ice rink. I didn't think that it would melt.

Ice skating looked so much fun and I wanted to join in but my fire melted the ice. I am sorry to all the children who fell in the water.

I am also very sorry for burning the Christmas tree in the village. I tied a scarf around my nose but it did not work. I got too excited when I saw the Christmas tree and my fire blasted out of my ears.

I felt sad and I ran home. My best friend looked after me. She came to my house and we made a plan!

I want to make everyone happy so I have made a surprise for you all. I will bring it to the Christmas feast.

See you soon,

To all of my friends in the village,

I am writing to say how sorry I am for all of the trouble that I have caused today. I know that you are all very angry with me for ruining your Christmas fun.

The problem is that I can't control my fire when I am excited and it burns things. I am trying hard to fix it but I think that I will need help from my friends.

I am sorry for melting the ice rink in the village. I don't know how it all happened. I just remember seeing the twinkling ice and hearing my friend's giggles and I wanted to join in. So, I ran as fast as I could, leapt onto the ice and twirled around. Before I knew it, the ice had melted! I am sorry to all of the children who fell in the water.

I am also very sorry for burning the Christmas tree in the village square. I knew that I would be so excited when I saw the giant tree so I tied a scarf around my nose. It didn't work. Once I saw the beautiful tree and all of the decorations, I got so excited that the fire just blasted out of my ears. Once I smelt the burnt twigs, I knew what had happened. I felt so sad that I had to run away.

I felt so lonely but my best friend didn't give up on me. She followed me home and we have made a plan! I want to make it up to the village so I have made a surprise for you all for the Christmas feast. Please don't be frightened of me. I know that I can control my fire with the help of my friends.

I can't wait to show you my surprise! It will be very tasty!
