

L.O. To identify and use the passive voice.

Change these active sentences so they are written in the passive voice.

The duck swam gracefully in the pond.

James baked the cookies.

The footballer passed the ball.

Sally ate the apple.

Write each of these sentences so they are in the active voice.

The ball was caught by the dog.

The book was read by the girl at the library.

The chunks of dirt will be removed from the car by clean-up teams.

Say whether the sentences below are active or passive:

The boy ate the cake.

The girl was chased by the monster.

Research will be presented by Einstein at the conference.

The quarterback threw the football.

Which of these sentences is written in the passive voice. (tick one)

The otter ran by the stream.

The pasta was cooked by the chef.

The bird perched on the branch.

Write a sentence about the image below that includes the passive voice.

L.O. To identify and use the subject and object.

Underline the subject in each of the sentences below.

The duck swam gracefully in the pond.

James baked the cookies.

The footballer passed the ball.

Sally ate the apple.

What is the subject of the sentence below?

On Tuesday, Mary plans to meet Aidan in Liverpool.

Tick one.

Tuesday

Mary

Aidan

Liverpool

Circle the object in each of the sentences below.

James baked a cake in the oven.

Owen scored a goal at the match.

The dog barked loudly at the lady in the park.

The butterfly perched on the branch.

Write a sentence about the image below and label the subject (s), verb (v) and object (o) underneath.

