

Force of Nature Spring 2

Reading

Michael Morpurgo—Running Wild
Classic children’s poetry—William Blake “The Tyger”
Other Rainforest inspired poems
Non Fiction Text—Explore the Rainforest

English Outcomes

Persuasive letter

Narrative writing

Poem inspired by William Blake’s ‘Tyger’

Maths

Standard written methods for multiplication and division

Fractions

PSHCE

Jigsaw— Healthy Me
Making healthy choices (Alcohol and Smoking)

Keeping calm in emergencies

Body image.

Science

Forces—Measuring forces

Friction

Air resistance

Upthrust

Gravity

Mechanisms

History

Early Islamic civilisations

Baghdad as an important settlement

Compare Early Islamic civilisations to the Vikings

Music

Fresh Prince of Bel-Air

Composition and Performance

Learning the recorder

Design and Technology

Food—design and make a healthy bolognese

Structures—design and make a model bridge from wood.

MFL Spanish

Family

PE

Hockey

RE

Charities and motivations for giving.

Vocations

People inspired by their faith

Visitors and Visits: Zoolab

STEM Coding Workshop

Children’s input: Organising a fundraising day

Community Links & enterprise: Science Week

Computing

Databases

Using search tools