

Writing

- Writing a first person recount.
- Writing a character description about a character from The Firework-Maker's Daughter.
- Writing a letter to a character in The Firework-Maker's Daughter.
- Looking at poetry of Joseph Coelho, Simon Mole and James Carter and write their own poem.

PSHE (Jigsaw)

- Being me in my world
- Celebrating difference

Science

- Where does all that food go? (Biology)
- Good vibrations (Physics)

Reading

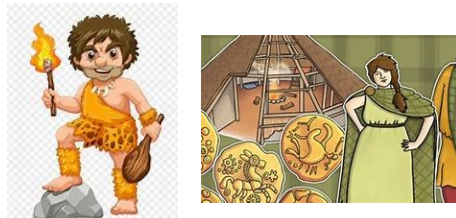

- National Geographic Everything Volcanoes and Earthquakes.
- The Firework-Maker's Daughter by Philip Pullman.

Maths

- Place value
- Addition and subtraction
- Area
- Multiplication and division

Through the Ages:

Y4 Autumn Term

Art

- Observational drawings inspired by nature.

History

- Understanding the timeline of Stone Age to Iron Age.
- Looking at primary and secondary resources.

Spanish

- Presenting myself
- Family

Geography

- Understanding the difference between the British Isles, Great Britain and the UK and using a compass to plan a journey.
- Understanding the key features of settlements and how they have changed over time.

Design & Technology

- Designing, making and evaluating a slingshot car.
- Designing, making and evaluating a torch.

Computing

- The internet.
- Creating media—audio editing.
- Online safety.

Music

- Specialist music lessons provided by the music service (percussion).

PE

- Basketball and Dance

RE

- Where is religion?
- What does belonging mean?
- Where do people get their sense of identity?
- Christmas