Play Charter: The 3Rs of Play

Our Charter for Playtime Fun!

We believe that playtime is important for everyone. To make sure it's fun and fair, we agree to follow these rules:

We are Respectful

- Kindness: We treat others as we want to be treated. We are gentle and caring in our words and actions.
- Inclusivity: We welcome everyone to join in our games. We are friendly and make sure no one feels left out.
- Listening: We listen to each other's ideas and value what everyone has to say.
- Helpfulness: We help and support others when they need it. We are good friends.
- Manners: We are polite and courteous to everyone. We use our best manners.
- Respect for Property: We look after our school, our equipment, and our environment. We treat things with care.
- Fairness: We play fairly and follow the rules of the games.

We are Responsible

- Sharing: We share the equipment and take turns.
- Choice: We make our own choices about what games to play.
- Actions: We are responsible for our own actions and learning.
- Tidying Up: We all help to tidy up when playtime is over.
- Safety: We play safely and think about how to keep ourselves and others safe.
- Enjoyment for All: We all help to make sure everyone has a good time.

We are Resilient

- Having Fun: We remember that playtime is for fun!
- Problem Solving: We try to solve problems ourselves in a kind and understanding way.
- Bouncing Back: We don't give up easily. We try again even when things are difficult.
- Trying our Best: We work hard and try to achieve our best during playtime.
- Making the Most of Play: We use our time well and enjoy every moment.
- Staying Safe: We keep ourselves and others safe.
